“We are thrilled to share the exciting updates of our project EcopreNEETs, aimed at involving young NEETs in the workforce, enhance their eco-entrepreneurial abilities, close the gap between young job seekers and employers, and equip them with resources to thrive.”

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The project focuses on young NEETs who have long been disconnected from the labor market and promotes an inclusive approach to foster NEETs' environmental entrepreneurship through experiential learning.

Key Insights from our White Paper:

1. Understanding NEETs in Europe

Post the recent health crisis, persistent challenges have been identified, notably among young women and in rural areas.

2. Global Initiatives for Youth Empowerment

Robust measures have been instituted across various countries to combat youth unemployment, with a specific emphasis on fostering eco-friendly entrepreneurship.

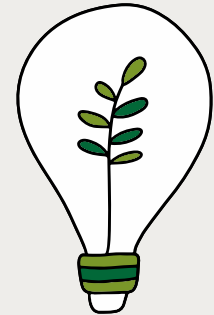

3. Validation of project direction

Positive feedback from NEETs, social workers, and experienced eco-entrepreneurs has reinforced the project's relevance and strategic orientation.

4. Empowering through Eco-Entrepreneurship

Our findings emphasize that eco-entrepreneurship holds potential in engaging NEETs, especially when coupled with dedicated support from social workers and seasoned eco-entrepreneurs.

5. Networking for Inspiration

Networking opportunities play a pivotal role in inspiring NEETs, fostering valuable interactions with seasoned professionals within the field.

These conclusions underscore the critical role of sustainable solutions in addressing the challenges faced by NEETs, highlighting the unwavering commitment of our consortium to drive impactful change through this project.

WHAT ELSE HAS BEEN DONE

We are delighted to announce that our dedicated partners have meticulously crafted interactive training materials, incorporating a diverse array of engaging activities tailored to enhance the learning experience.
